Food Truck Fridays have been Replaced with Uptown Saturdays

Uptown Saturdays will take place every Saturday in June and September and will feature food trucks, live music and family-friendly activities. It will be staged at a new location, in the East Mews parking lot near the corner of East Wayne and Conant Streets behind Maumee Valley Chocolate and Candy Shop.

The event will not take place in July and August, because those months typically drop off attendance-wise. In addition, MUBA hosts the July 3 family picnic, to coincide with the Independence Day fireworks and in August, we host our biggest event: the Maumee Summer Fair and Taste of Maumee.

Live entertainment will be included and family friendly events will be on hand courtesy of organizations such as Imagination Station, Sunshine Studios and You Can Be An Artist. The farmers market, which previously took place in conjunction with Food Truck Fridays, will not participate in the Saturday event, but we wouldn't rule out bringing vendors to the event in the future.

HIGHLIGHTED BUSINESS OF THE MONTH: Katherine Stark – Tailored Real Estate

Tailored Real Estate Services is just what it says. A unique boutique real estate company that tailors its services to each and every client, with a large part of its business being conducted in the Maumee area. Longtime Maumee resident, Katherine Stark, Broker/Owner of the company, opened her own brokerage to allow herself the autonomy to conduct business as she best sees fit. Her experience as an Entrepreneur who started a home consignment from scratch, Re-Decor, as well as her time spent as Financial Advisor with UBS/PaineWebber taught her valuable skills that she draws upon in serving clients. Unlike most realtors, Katherine offers an a la carte service where clients can choose specifically what they want help with based on their needs. Most want full service but sometimes her clients want to be more involved, but not absent the assistance of a professional who knows the ins and outs of the complicated and stressful process of a real estate transaction. In addition to helping clients buy and sell their primary residences, she has mentored investors and watched them change their life after realizing a supplemental source of income. She is also licensed in Florida and has helped many of her Toledo area connections realize the dream of owning a slice of Paradise. When asked what really sets her apart from others in her field, she humbly says her Yoga certification. “I have been involved in very tough negotiations where a deal was about to blow up and was able to help my clients see their way to the finish line and they were very grateful for that.” Whether one is upsizing, downsizing or mobilizing out to a different destination, Katherine finds pleasure in helping others navigate their way to an ideal lifestyle. She says, “It is so much more than a transaction.” Katherine can be reached at 844-MAUMEE8, or visit www.maumeerealty.com to read more about her business and what clients have to say about her.
